TFEPS Holiday Party

December 13, 2018

Once again we celebrated the holidays with a wonderful dinner and great camaraderie in the Garden House at Fairchild. It’s such a busy time of the year and as always, finds many of our members away or with prior commitments. In spite of this we had 51 in attendance in the festive Garden House with its red and green tablecloths and Poinsettia centerpieces.

Our guests were greeted by the holiday guitar music of Rob Friedman. The society provided roast turkey and ham as well as beverages and members were asked to bring their favorite side dish or dessert. It was a beautiful display of wonderful holiday fare and was presented nicely by our hospitality chair, Emalyl Israel. Several requested favorites including Elaine Mills baked pineapple dish, David Foster’s artichoke dip, and, of course those darling Santa eggs from Sandy Schultz, and that yummy trifle that Marie Nock makes. These are but a few of the delicious dishes so generously provided by our members.

Guests were asked to check under their chairs for a small pink paper indicating that they were a winner of the Poinsettia on each table and a number of happy guests took these beautiful holiday plants home with them. It was a great evening of enjoying the company of our friends and sampling their offerings.

I hope that you will consider attending this event during the 2019 holiday season.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

P.S. I would also like to ask you to consider taking over a chair for this event. I’ve done it for a number of years and have enjoyed them all, but feel that it needs a fresh touch and I could use a break from the planning. I will be happy to share my knowledge and decorations with you.

This early notice gives you lots of time to plan so please let me hear from you.
